

Maritimo®

Australian built long-range luxury cruisers

When you consider that Australia is the world's biggest island, it comes as no surprise that it's home to the new Maritimo Offshore, one of the world's finest long-range luxury cruisers.

After all, with a coastline measuring almost 60,000km in length, and facing the might of the Indian, Southern and Pacific oceans', you can't afford to compromise on engineering, performance or quality.

RANGE SUMMARY

SEPTEMBER 2010

For the discerning voyager

From the awesome power of twin Marine Diesels to the swathe of lavish appointments from the water up, everything aboard a Maritimo has been designed with one thing in mind : long-range luxury cruising.

In fact, no other cruiser looks, feels or performs like a Maritimo. It simply manages to be both timeless and ahead of its time. It truly is oceans apart.
